Dear Joshua,

Just to let you know - Doug's and Amanda's paths split in early 2019. He was teaching a lot of anti-semetic stuff - and we decided to agree not to agree.

We wrote a letter to explain our differences - see attached.

Amanda is still very involved in ministry - working for HOURS with survivors. She has not stopped - even though she did not agree with Doug anymore.

Hope you understand what happened.

Many blessings!!
Petro

A memorial to honor our friend, brother and pastor, Douglas Woods Riggs.

Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in Me will live even if he dies, and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?" John 11:25-26

Doug is not deceased, dead, nor in the grave. Doug is face to face with Jesus our Savior and Lord. Doug has departed from us, but is with Christ, Yeshua Mashiach.

We had a memorial service to honor our friend, brother, and pastor Friday evening, January 14, 2022 - just the small group of us in Syracuse. We recorded the audio as we shared our thoughts. We invited a few to make a short audio recording of what they would have shared had they been present, and many sent emails of condolence and testimony of how Doug influenced, helped and changed their lives, some of which we read. We could not include all we received as that would have made this memorial many times longer in duration.

We hope this blesses you as you reminisce and consider the legacy Doug gave as he lived a sacrificial life as a vessel through whom Jesus healed many brokenhearted saints and set free those held in captivity (Isaiah 61:1 cp Luke 4:18). Doug was God's gift of a pastor-teacher to us and he faithfully carried out that responsibility to equip us to do the work of ministry to the building up of the body of Christ - all this to reach the goal: "until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the full knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:7-16).

Our website www.dougriggs.org will continue to provide the ministry and stewardship God imparted to Doug as God permits.
